The Devil's Advocate

"In all the cases I've ever investigated, I've found no case of deliberate meanness or sadistic treatment of abductees"

Dr. Richard Boylan,
appearing on the Allen
Handleman Show.

Here at Devil's Advocate we feel obligated to voice views that many people would consider to be in opposition to the majority opinion. We don't claim to be right all the time, our purpose is just to make you think.

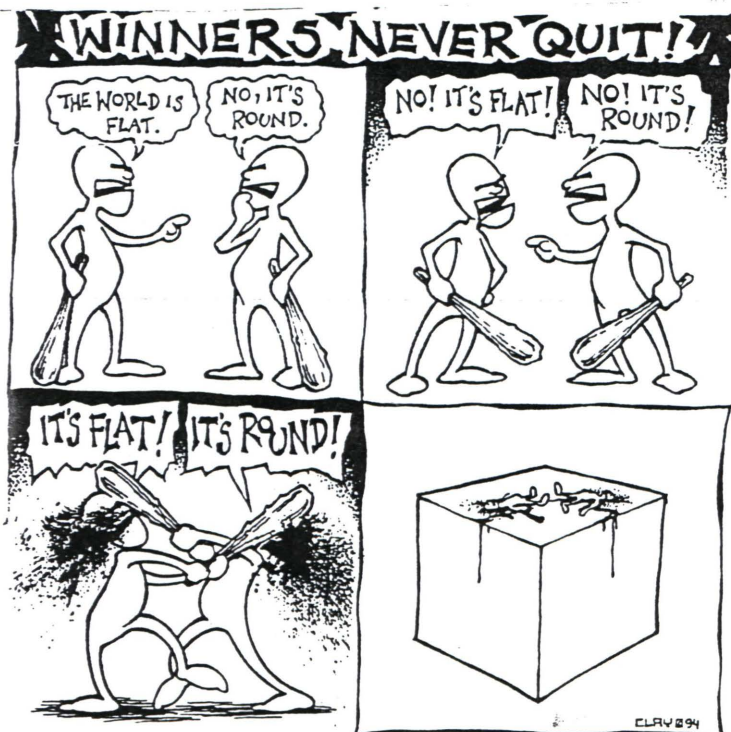

We believe that there is a genuine UFO phenomenon, but we also feel that we should examine both sides of the story to keep ourselves open minded, objective, and on our toes.

"Whatever their ultimate purpose, a constant whenever either of these two entity types has been present, often working together, is a humiliating, sexually intrusive, hate-filled and altogether negative experience for the abduction subject.

Dan Wright, of the

G.A.O. Report on Roswell

The G.A.O. has released it's findings on the "Roswell UFO crash".

Although no major revelations were disclosed in the report, one section of the report reveals, "Our search of government records was complicated by the fact that some records we wanted to review were missing and there was not always an explanation."

Missing records could be explained by the fact that regulations for managing records were unclear or changing at the time of the crash, as the G.A.O. suggests. There is always the possibility, as many will certainly claim, that the "cover-up" continues.

We telephoned Congressman Steven Schiff's office (the Congressman whose inquiry started the G.A.O probe) to get his opinion on the report. We were told that he was "very satisfied" with the job performed by the G.A.O. The Congressman has issued a press release, which is included in this issue.

The Congressman's press secretary also told us that their office could not follow up the incident much further, but, he did know that at least 20 other Representatives had requested advanced copies of the report and that indicated some interest, on their part, in the incident. He also told us that the report produced "many more questions than answers," and that the investigation of the incident was largely "constituent driven".

We must admit that we were getting fed up with hearing about the infamous "Roswell incident" (and we still are, to some degree), but now that there appears to be at least some minute possibility that Congress is taking interest we'll continue to keep our ears open.

By all means, if you haven't called or written your Congressman about the incident, now's the time to do so. Let's get this thing cleared up one way or the other.

The G.A.O. report can be obtained from the G.A.O. Document Distribution Facility, (202) 512-6000. Report # NSIAD-95-187.

Roswell Autopsies?

We've just viewed the infamous "Roswell autopsy film", along with the rest of you, on FOX. To be honest, we were expecting a very obvious hoax. We were surprised at how convincing the films really are.

We just can't understand why FOX did not show the autopsy films in their entirety, uncut, and uninterrupted. They paid enough for it. You'd think that they'd try to exploit it to the max by playing the films over and over. There is the possibility, as someone has suggested, that FOX was intentionally showing only the realistic portions of the film. This could be the case if FOX plans a follow up to the special.

There are still many questions to be asked about these films. Probably, the most obvious (and hardest to answer) is, how was the mystery cameraman able to hold onto the films after taking them? It would be logical to assume that if a cover-up occurred (and it does appear that something was covered up), then those in charge of the cover-up, would probably be smart enough to make sure that they collected all film footage of the dead aliens. We haven't heard a satisfactory answer to this question, and doubt if one could even be offered.

We'd like to get your opinion.

Messages From Mary

A woman named Veronica Lueken, who claims to have been experiencing apparitions of the Virgin Mary for the past 25 years, (and seems to have quite a following for it, too), sent us some information on what the Virgin says about UFOs.

The Virgin tells Veronica, "Your world, My children, is now filled with demons. They will promote accidents that are not accidents, destruction, and even false miracles in the air (emphasis added). And I repeat to you, My children; your UFO's are not unknown to your god, for they come from Satan. They are one of the false miracles of the latter days. They are vehicles from hell, transporting demons, though these demons of the spirit can act upon their own. I cannot, my children, give you full details at this time on the reason for calling them transports from hell. In time this will all be given to you."

And for those of you interested in the happenings at Fatima, we present the introduction to one of Veronica Lueken's very similar "apparitions". "...There are lights coming out of the sky. They're a lighter blue. Our Lady calls them the call lights. It's like a signal. I wait for the call lights, and when Our Lady's about to appear these lights appear in the sky. They can be found, Our Lady often said, on the photographs people are taking."

For those of you who are interested in the religious view on UFOs, we've enclosed one of Ms. Lueken's Directives, which deals with UFOs, at the back of this issue.

Gulf Breeze UFO Look-alike Photographed In 1968

We've recently stumbled upon something which we feel may have some relevance to the UFO photographs taken by Ed Walters, in the Gulf Breeze area.

While flipping through a copy of Ralph Blum's Beyond Earth: Man's Contact With UFOs, searching for photographs for another UFO article, we happened upon a chart created by Dr. R.N. Shepard for The House Committee on Science and Astronautics, in 1968, to illustrate UFOs that had been previously photographed.

Browsing over the illustrations, we noticed a drawing of an object that appeared remarkably similar to the object in the photographs taken by Ed Walters. From the bottom left corner, it's one up and one to the right.

The book was published in 1974, and the chart created in 1968. We felt that the resemblance was remarkable, and that because this had appeared prior to the Walters photos, it could be very important. We were also surprised that we had never heard anyone else mention this chart, or the photograph it was said to have been taken from.

We then contacted Dr. Shepard in the hope of finding out more about the chart. He regretfully replied that he had done that research nearly 3 decades ago, and was unsure if he could be any help in regard to that specific drawing. He was able to send us a copy of the full report and a better copy of the chart. He also told us that he did remember that while collecting photographs for the chart he noticed that the photograph in question appeared to be of very questionable authenticity.

We then received word from an associate who said that he may be able to help. He sent us a copy of a photograph from a book titled UFO, by Milt Macklin and Tim Beckley, published in 1981.

We discussed the photograph, noticing that the caption said that the photo had been taken more than ten years ago in Japan. We decided that because the date was in agreement with the chart, that we had probably found the correct photograph.

We then discussed the authenticity of the photograph. We can't at this point give a definitive answer to the question of authenticity. We can only say that by merely checking the photograph with the eye, it doesn't seem to be an authentic UFO. We hope that readers can offer their help by supplying more information about the photograph. We also hope that someone trained in photo analysis will step forward and offer to check it out.

Even if the "pre-1968 photo" does turn out to be fake, we still think that it could be very important as it relates to the Walters photos. The photos seem too similar to be a mere coincidence. The basic structures appear to be almost the same.

There are a few small differences between the photos. Most noticeably, the lack of the "power ring" (the circle of light that appears on the craft in the Walters photos) on the pre-1968 UFO, and the structure that looks like some sort of a "rudder" sticking out of the right side of the pre-1968 UFO. The "rudder" is barely noticeable, and we presume that it is supposed to be a stabilizer of some sort.

Now we come to the point of all this. Does the pre-1968 photograph relate in some way to the Ed Walters photos? We think so. If the pre-1968 photograph is fake, does that mean that the Walters photos are fake? Not necessarily. If Walters had decided to fake UFO photographs using a prior photo as the inspiration, why would he chose one that is of questionable (at the least) authenticity. Furthermore, if Walters had faked his photos using the pre-1968 UFO as inspiration, why after all this time didn't he attempt to use the fact that a very similar object had been photographed decades before, as proof to back his own story.

There is the possibility that Walters faked his photographs after seeing the chart and somehow being subliminally influenced by it, but the fact is, Ed Walters' photos have been heavily scrutinized and they show no signs of being fakes. Of course, given enough knowledge, equipment, and money you could make photographs that would fool anybody. But in all likelihood, Ed Walters could not have pulled off such an elaborate hoax without a lot of help.

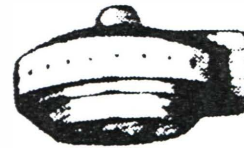

We now come to a very bewildering question, if the pre-1968 photo is fake, and Walters has never seen it, how can we explain the remarkable similarity?

We wrote to Ed Walters and asked if he had ever seen the chart or the 1968 photograph. As of yet, he has not responded.

We're completely puzzled by this whole thing, as is often the case with the UFO phenomenon. We'll just have to keep digging. We'll let you know of any further developments.

Whitley Strieber Responds

We recently attempted to get Whitley Strieber to agree to a short interview. We were unsuccessful, and received a sheet of "commonly asked questions and answers" instead. Here are two that we found very interesting:

Q: You keep saying you're a Catholic. How can you possibly be involved in traditional religion, especially one as messed up as the Catholic church.?

A: The church does not present an appealing face. It is obviously full of problems. But our religions would not be ours if they didn't have defects, and the church also does much good in this world, and offers an unbroken tradition of communion all the way back to the last supper.

Q: I've heard that there are incredible videos around, including one made on another planet. Is this true?

A: I am watching carefully as the extraordinary film footage that is being brought forth by Ray Santilli of the Roswell incident is analyzed and verified. So far it's authenticity seems compelling, but has not yet been proved. I have seen this video of the other planet, and it was remarkable. At the present, the owner will not allow it to be shown publicly. I am working for that to change.

Review:Breakthrough: The Next Step

by Whitley Strieber

HarperCollins Publishers Inc., New York, NY, 1995

Hb, 297 pp, $23.00

In this, Strieber's third book on the UFO abduction phenomenon, the proof that Strieber offers the reader to support his experiences falls short of what we had hoped. While this may sound like an unappealing fact for many objective researchers, Strieber is able to pull the reader in and fascinate him or her with his extraordinary encounters to such a degree that the reader doesn't even notice it for the most part.

The reader finds himself actually hoping that Strieber's encounters are real and that his views on the phenomenon are correct. When compared to Budd Hopkins' terrifying tales of gray aliens stealing genetic material in the night, Strieber's experiences make the reader want to believe him.

In Breakthrough, Strieber makes some of the most extreme claims of contact to date. At one point he recounts an experience in which one of the visitors allegedly stayed in his house for several months as his guest. He says they would meditate together up to three times a night.

Breakthrough: The Next Step is aptly titled, as it asks the reader to put more faith in Strieber's honesty than ever before.

Overall the book is well written, very interesting, and a must have for anyone with even a passing interest in the abduction phenomenon.

Unbroken Promises: A True Story of Courage and Belief

White Mesa Publishers, Mesa, AZ, 1995.
Hb, 258 pp, $22.95

Certainly everyone even remotely familiar with the infamous Gulf Breeze UFO's will have heard about the six U.S. Army Intelligence Specialists that went AWOL in July of 1990 from Augsburg, Germany, and were subsequently caught in none other than Gulf Breeze, Florida eight days later. Not only did six people go AWOL at the same time, but all six received Honorable Discharges. Vance Davis was apparently the ring leader of this group, and now five years later, Davis, along with Brian Blashaw have written a supposedly non-fiction book about the group's experiences.

The book is quality bound, but my copy had about six pages that had creases from the printing process. It is well written and easy to read, and is interspersed with all uppercase messages that the group claims to have gotten from a Ouija board. There is a chapter with predictions from the Ouija board, as well as chapters by Annette (Eccelston) Levesque, one of the six, and Anna Foster Beason, a supposed psychic in Gulf Breeze, and Diana Gautier Davis, Davis' wife. There is an appendix with forty-six pages of documents, including sworn statements of Davis, Eccelston, and Beason supposedly taken at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Davis claims to have psychic ability learned in part through a Silva Mind Control class, and claims to have contacted "Guides" through self-hypnosis. He also claims to have been confronted by none other than Satan himself. "...I heard Stan's true name, which is never to be repeated. It calls him." (p. 27) He also supposedly met an alien "Guide" called Kia from a planet 45 light years from Earth. The Ouija stuff began after Ken Beason returned from a trip to Pensacola, where he had met Anna Foster, who incidentally knew Francis Walters. The first of the Ouija board spirits was Safire, who had died in Sebina, Georgia in the sixties. Safire gave the group Bible verses, UFO information, and eventually told them to go AWOL.

"Safire told us that there would be a mass "pick-up" that would have the government confused, since this would not be engineered by the aliens that the government is working with. She said that it would be mistaken by many for the Rapture..." This quote (p. 58) sums up the general tone of this book; a weird combination of New Age, Christian fundamentalism, and William Cooper all rolled into one. The group also allegedly contacted none other than the Virgin Mary, Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Simon-Peter, Zechariah, and Zacharias.

After they sold off personal property, and Ken Beason removed the hard drive from his computer, they boarded a Delta flight to Atlanta. Eight days later they were in custody. They were taken to Fort Benning and then to Fort Knox. Three weeks later, all six were given Honorable Discharges, along with Article 15 reprimands, which are nothing more than a speeding ticket. On page 202 Anna Foster writes, "The six soldiers had gone AWOL, like more than two hundred-fifty do a month from the Army. The government screwed up and then released them."

We may never know what really caused the six to leave the 701st MI BDE in Augsburg, Germany. As an agnostic with an admitted bias toward the Christian belief system, I find this book to be incredulous. Even if Safire is real, nothing happened in Germany that would have made it advantageous to leave; all six could have completed their tour of duty. "Tell us again why we should go," Ken insisted, ...SO THAT YOU MAY PREPARE SPIRITUALLY AND PHYSICALLY." (p. 103) It seems like a poor reason for six young bright Army soldiers to jeopardize their futures by packing up and going AWOL.

Was it something they saw on a piece of cardboard with a cheap piece of plastic; or was it something seen on NSA equipment? It is just possible that Davis and others are keeping unbroken promises to those that gave them their freedom, in exchange for not revealing what they know, yet with the publication of such an outlandish book make it apparent to logical thinkers that the true story has not been told. Instead of shedding light on the Gulf Breeze/UFO enigma, this book sucks it away like a black hole.

(We should also mention that in Ed Walters book UFO Abductions in Gulf Breeze, p.229, Ed's wife Francis stated that she was told that the reason the soldiers were in Gulf Breeze had nothing to do with a cult or the rapture, but rather dealt with "UFOs" and "government Cover-up". ED.)

Letter To The Editor

The following was sent in by J.J. Snyder:

"Issue #1 of DEVIL'S ADVOCATE is great... it fills a need in the UFO investigative field for a publication which takes an objective, critical, and yet an open-minded view of the phenomenon, and remains open to all manner and sources of information."

Sorry if it seems like we're doing a little too much ego pumping, but this letter pretty much sums up the purpose of Devil's Advocate.

The Devil's Advocate is a non-profit newsletter dedicated to giving the objective ufologist who understands that we are facing a genuine mystery, a place to voice his/her opinion. We are not debunkers or true believers, although we are often called both depending on who you ask.

If response is great enough we will continue to publish this newsletter and hopefully expand it, with your help.

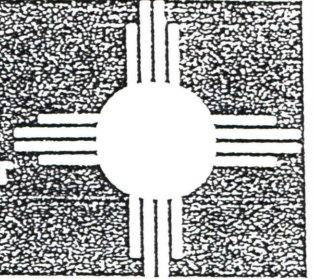

We sincerely believe that there are many people out there who feel excluded in the UFO community. Hopefully there are enough of us out there to make this newsletter work.

We will continue to charge the lowest price possible for the newsletter. (Continued after enclosures.)

Schiff Receives, Releases Roswell Report

(missing documents leave unanswered questions)

Washington: Congressman Steve Schiff today released the General Accounting Office (GAO) report detailing results of a records audit related to events surrounding a crash in 1947, near Roswell, New Mexico, and the military response.

The 20 page report is the result of constituent information requests to Congressman Schiff and the difficulty he had getting answers from the Department of Defense in the now 48-year-old controversy.

Schiff said important documents, which may have shed more light on what happened at Roswell, are missing. "The GAO report states that the outgoing messages from Roswell Army Air Field (RAAF) for this period of time were destroyed without proper authority." Schiff pointed out that these messages would have shown how military officials in Roswell were explaining to their superiors exactly what happened.

"It is my understanding that these outgoing messages were permanent records, which should never have been destroyed. The GAO could not identify who destroyed the messages, or why." But

Schiff pointed out that the GAO estimates that the messages were destroyed over 40 years ago, making further inquiry about their destruction impractical.

Documents revealed by the report include an FBI teletype and reference in a newsletter style internal forum at RAAF that refer to a "radar tracking device" - a reference to a weather balloon. Even though the weather balloon story has since been discredited by the US Air Force, Schiff suggested that the authors of those communications may have been repeating what they were told, rather than consciously adding to what some believe is a "cover up."

"At least this effort caused the Air Force to acknowledge that the crashed vehicle was no weather balloon," Schiff said. "That explanation never fit the fact of high military security used at the time." The Air Force in September, 1994 claimed that the crashed vehicle was a then-classified device to detect evidence of possible Soviet nuclear testing.

Schiff also praised the efforts of the GAO, describing their work as "professional, conscientious and thorough."

A two page letter discussing a related investigation into "Majestic 12" was also delivered.

Schiff will be available to the media Saturday, July 29th, from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM (Eastern) at 2404 Rayburn HOB in Washington, DC and by telephone: (202) 225-6316.

A copy of the report may be obtained by calling (202) 512-6000 and referencing Document number GAO/NSIAD-95-187.

from Heaven

UFOs

"FOR THE TIME HAS COME when the most astonishing wonders will take place on the earth and in the air. . . . [Satan] will have great power over nature: there will be churches built to serve these spirits. People will be transported from one place to another by these evil spirits, even priests. . . ."

FROM THE APPROVED TEXT OF THE SECRET OF LA SALETTE

The excerpts below are culled from the vast compilation of messages (over 300) given by Heaven to the world in these latter days.

They indicate the proper conduct and perception we should have as Roman Catholics—and that Heaven demands.

SPIRITS OF DARKNESS

In a cave so deep and wide,
Your flying saucers seek to hide;
Sent up through space,
confusion to found.
Your earth is now clothed all around
With spirits of darkness who travel by night.
But do not be frightened;
pray for their flight.

Veronica, November 24, 1973

DELUSION

Veronica—Oh, there are two flying saucers now. They are going very, very high into the sky. . . .

"Be not afeared, for you are being allowed to see what satan plans to delude mankind with. There is no life as you know it, or human being, or otherwise, upon another planet. The creation of the Father has been given to you in the Book of love and life. Do not fantasize of life on other planets, My children. It is a falsehood. Were it not so you would have been told, for the Father hides nothing from His children. He created man, known Adam and Eve, and as such they were the first of your—of the Father's creation. You may say, your first mother and father symbol."

Our Lady, September 28, 1974

THE ELEMENTS

"They are performing now prodigies and wonders to confuse and confound mankind. You call one of them the UFOs. They are supernatural manifestations from hell. They are created in the minds of some by the demons, who are capable, because of great power upon earth, to control now the elements, nature."

Our Lady, February 1, 1978

NO VEHICLES

"While We speak of agents of hell, My child, I also wish that you make it known that there are no vehicles coming from other planets—extraterrestrial vehicles. No, My child and My children; they are agents of hell in transport. Now you may ask, why must they be transported if they are spirits? Ah, My child, this you may not understand. These are not ordinary spirits; these are the demons from hell: satan's cohorts, and satan himself. He is also on one of the transports.

"There is a reason they must use the transports. I will not go into it at this time, for I am sure it would befog the mind of any scientist should I give this knowledge to them before they are ready for it."

Our Lady, November 1, 1985

RAPTURE

"I give you great grace of heart, My children, to know that many shall be taken from your earth before the great Chastisement. . . . Many of your news medias shall state that they have been carried off by flying saucers. Oh no, My children! They were carried off into a supernatural realm of the Eternal Father to await the return of My Son upon earth."

Our Lady, December 7, 1976

NOT A FIGMENT

"In this final battle, there are many agents of hell loosed upon earth. They are traveling in transports. Do not be won over to a false theory

BACKGROUND STORY

"THE LOURDES OF AMERICA"

Veronica Lueken, the seer of Bayside, is a wife and mother of five children. She is in her late sixties and lives on Long Island, New York.

Our Lady appeared to Veronica in her home on April 7, 1970, informing her that She would appear on the grounds of the old St. Robert Bellarmine Church in Bayside on June 18, 1970; that vigils of prayer be held there (now temporarily held at the Vatican Pavilion Site in Flushing), and that full directions be given to the clergy of the parish to prepare for Our Lady's first visit there.

Our Lady also requested that a Shrine and Basilica be erected on this Her chosen Sacred Site, which is to be named "Our Lady of the Roses, Mary Help of Mothers." She promised to come on the eve of the great feast days of the Church. The Blessed Mother also instructed Veronica to disseminate the messages given to her throughout the whole world.

Our Lady has requested that the Rosary be recited aloud by the crowd during the whole of the Vigil. All are requested to kneel in the presence of Jesus. The Message is repeated word for word by Veronica. Veronica also describes what she sees. All is recorded by tape.

of life beyond the heavens, other than the Kingdom of God. Know that it is satan who sends these vehicles before you. They are to confuse and confound you. These objects that take flight across your earth are from hell. They are only the false miracles of your times.

"Recognize them, My children; they are not a figment of man's imagination. They are present in your atmosphere, and they will become more dominant as the fight goes on for the souls."

Our Lady, December 24, 1973

HIDDEN AMONG YOU

"Already satan is working his way into your consciousness, seeking to take over your minds. He is now promoting false miracles. Those you call flying saucers are images from hell. My children, if you reject the knowledge of the supernatural, you are now playing right into his hands. While he remains hidden among you, he can go about and, like a ravenous wolf, gobble up My children as they fall from grace."

Our Lady, June 18, 1978

WASTING MONEY

"There are no beings on other planets. We've explained to you about the vehicles from hell. So if you keep on wasting your country's money by looking for life on other planets, you will have more starving in your nation. And your country shall go down the drain, so to speak—economically, morally, and actually, factually destroyed."

Jesus, November 1, 1985

ACROSS THE VEIL

"You men of science, you go forward out into space, looking and searching for another world. You will find nothing. Out in space, My children, there only lies a void. The other world is across the veil; it is the world of the supernatural. Man of science is ever searching, but never coming to the knowledge of truth."

Our Lady, September 7, 1976

TRANSPORTS FROM HELL

"Do not look for land, do not look on another planet for life, for there is none. Only those who delude you tell you this. What you saw, My child, in the past, called a flying saucer by mankind, We have allowed many to see this. They are transports from hell. However, We have never seen a demon, My child, who has taken on a human form, except through the spirit. . . .

"What you have now, because of the sins of mankind, all hell is loosed upon earth. Satan now knows that his time is growing short. That is the truth, My children. I tell you all: your time is growing short."

Jesus, June 18, 1992

SCIENTISTS

"There will be great changes in nature upon your earth. Scientists have cast aside their God, and now demons are loosed upon earth who will set in motion diabolical manifestations within the hearts and sight of mankind."

Our Lady, June 16, 1977

PITS OF HELL

Veronica—Oh! Oh, I see a—oh, it's a very large pit, I guess, a hole. And sitting down there at the edge of the hole are some horrible-looking things. They look like animals, but they have almost the figures of people.

And they're sitting around now, what looks like a glass. And the glass is reflecting up through the hole, and it's almost like a looking glass because its . . . The rays—there are rays being shot out from this glass, and the rays are going up, up this hole. And I'm watching the rays. And they're shooting out onto the grounds. And as they're going up, riding these rays are these horrible, ugly things, these—I know they're demons; I know. Now Our Lady said:

"Watch, My child, what else is exiting from the hole."

Veronica—Oh, my goodness! There are things that look like bright lights, but they're like dome-like on the top. And they don't have any windows; they're just great lights. And Our Lady now is standing at the edge of this hole, and She's pointing. And She's saying:

"Man will not accept the truth. These are transports of hell."

Veronica—Oh, Our Lady's referring to these things that are being seen on earth. Our Lady said:

"Make it known, My child, that the false miracles of the end time are now at hand. Satan seeks to confuse you. Make it known, My child, that there is no life beyond your earth as you know it. Man will go out into space. Better that he uses these efforts to find his way back to God."

Our Lady, May 30, 1973

HOLY HOUR

Our Lady instructed Veronica to hold a Holy Hour each and every Sunday for the intentions of the Pope and all clergy, and in reparation for the profanation of the Lord's day. The weekly Holy Hour is held at 10:30 AM; the Vigils of prayer from 8:30 to 11:30 PM—both events at the Vatican Pavilion Site in Flushing Meadows-Corona Park, borough of Queens, in the city of New York. The Apparitions continue to this day, and a message is given every Vigil that Veronica is present.

UFOs & PROJECT BLUE BOOK

On December 17, 1969, the Secretary of the Air Force announced the termination of Project Blue Book, the Air Force program for the investigation of UFOs.

From 1947 to 1969, a total of 12,618 sightings were reported to Project Blue Book. Of these 701 remain "Unidentified."

The project was headquartered at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, whose personnel no longer receive, document or investigate UFO reports.

The decision to discontinue UFO investigations was based on an evaluation of a report prepared by the University of Colorado entitled, "Scientific Study of Unidentified Flying Objects;" a review of the University of Colorado's report by the National Academy of Sciences; past UFO studies and Air Force experience investigating UFO reports during the 40s, '50s, and '60s.

As a result of these investigations and studies and experience gained from investigating UFO reports since 1948, the conclusions of Project Blue Book are: (1) no UFO reported, investigated, and evaluated by the Air Force has ever given any indication of threat to our national security; (2) there has been no evidence submitted to or discovered by the Air Force that sightings categorized as "unidentified" represent technological developments or principles beyond the range of present-day scientific knowledge; and (3) there has been no evidence indicating that sightings categorized as "unidentified" are extraterrestrial vehicles.

With the termination of Project Blue Book, the Air Force regulations establishing and controlling the program for investigating and analyzing UFOs were rescinded. Documentation regarding the former Blue Book investigation has been permanently transferred to the Military Reference Branch, National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, DC 20408, and is available for public review and analysis.

News media inquiries regarding the Blue Book files at the National Archives may be made to the National Archives Public Affairs Office (202-501-5525). other public inquiries about these records made to the Archives II Textual Reference Branch (301-713-7250).

Since Project Blue Book was closed, nothing has happened to indicate that the Air Force ought to resume investigating UFOS. Because of the considerable cost to the Air Force in the past, and the tight funding of Air Force needs today, there is no likelihood the Air Force will become involved with UFO investigation again.

There are a number of universities and professional scientific organizations, such as the American Association for the Advancement of Science, which have considered UFO phenomena during periodic meetings and seminars. In addition, a list of private organizations interested in aerial phenomena may be found in Gayle's Encyclopedia of Associations (edition 8, vol-. 1, pp. 432-433). Such timely review of the situation by private groups ensures that sound evidence will not be overlooked by the scientific community.

A person calling the base to report a UFO is advised to contact a private or professional organization (as mentioned above) or to contact a local law enforcement agency if the caller feels his or public safety is endangered.

Periodically, it is erroneously stated that the remains of extraterrestrial visitors are or have been stored at Wright-Patterson AFB. There are not now nor ever have been, any extraterrestrial visitors or equipment on Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

We're not looking to cash in on UFOs, we just want to cover our expenses.

We might be willing to exchange advertising space with other publications in the future to get the word out that we exist.

Donations of stamps, small amounts of cash, and (most importantly) your ideas and articles, are welcome. And please remember to include a SASE when corresponding with The Devil's Advocate.

Thanks.

NOTICE...

The Devil's Advocate is looking for people who can offer information obtained from research of the following subjects: cases involving "angel hair", psychological studies/evaluations of abductees, instances of possible military attempts to hoax UFO sightings, and cases of "absurd" entity actions in which the witness' credibility and the evidence do not point to a probable hoax.

Anyone who may be interested in providing coverage of lectures or conferences, let us know.

.....Well, that just about wraps it up for this issue except for a few quick things.

First of all, we're planning on shooting for a bimonthly schedule. We sent out the first two issues close together so we could hopefully get things moving for the newsletter.

Subscription rates are as follows.

One year (6 issues) of Devil's Advocate is $10 ($15 foreign). Single issues are $2 each. Please make checks or money orders payable to Tim Brigham. Don't worry, if we happen to stop putting out the newsletter in the future, you will get a refund on any issues that you may have left on your subscription.

If anybody out there can help us out by placing a post or an ad for us on the internet, it would really help. And if your not on the internet, please help us by telling others about Devil's Advocate.

Expect to hear from us again around the first half of November, when we'll be bringing you the news from the '95 Gulf Breeze UFO Conference, which looks like it's going to be the biggest UFO conference this year. Of course we'll have loads of other interesting things to bring you as well.

Until then keep in touch.
